

My Card Expires TODAY??!

Need to have that CPR card today?
Just remembered that you need ACLS
by the end of the week?

NO PROBLEM!

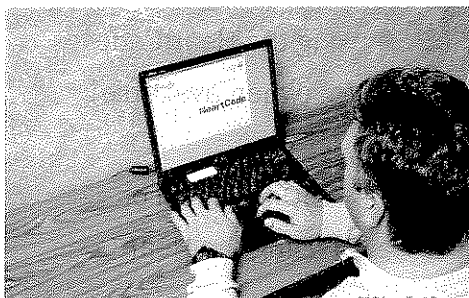

Let ALS Affiliates Inc. help.

We will make every reasonable attempt to schedule you for a class within 24 hrs. You will receive your card the same day you test.

TEST YOUR WAY

You can choose to attend a large class, do a one on one with an instructor, or choose to test out on the HeartCode Computer System

ACLS Using Laerdal HeartCode Computer

Choosing this method takes approximately 4-8 hours depending upon the student. Therefore, you choose the pace of the class.

BLS Healthcare Provider CPR conducted by an AHA BLS Instructor; renewal for current providers with current card takes approximately 3 hours. The Initial for the expired card holders takes about 5-6 hours. This is also offered on the computer if it is not already in use.

Costs:

BLS—$60 for Initial or Non-Current Provider
- $50 for renewal course
- $60 using the HeartCode
System (when available)

ACLS—$250 for Initial or Renewal using the HeartCode
System
